A message to the EXCEPTIONAL students of the Class of 2013

I cannot believe that our six year journey has come to an end. I say six years because you all were my first students. Our voyage started back in 2008 and this experience has been one of the best journeys I have embarked upon. You taught me how to be the educator I am today and I thank you for all of the lessons learned. I hope that my ambitious nature has left a lasting impression on you, because I want you to understand that EVERYTHING that is worth having is worth fighting for. I want you to remember to fight for what you believe in even if you are fighting the battle alone. I pray that you all go on and embark on careers that fulfill you spiritually, emotionally, and most of all, cognitively. You must push yourself beyond your own limits and break the norms set by society. You must strive for excellence and accept only the best from all that surround you. I want you all to read the poem "If" by Rudyard Kipling and use that poem as a guide to life. Remember that I will always be here for you and that I am so proud to have advised such a magnificent group of people.

Love always,

Mrs. Murphy- Richardson "Murph"

2013: The only thing that surmounts the love and pride I have for each one of you is my insatiable curiosity to see how you all change this world in amazing ways! Please remember where you come from as you journey off into this wonderful and adventurous life; your roots in Plainfield will give you a completely unique perspective on this curious world. Ground yourself in these roots as you develop wings. For you will develop wings... and my dreams for you revolve around how each and every one of you will fly.

Wishing you the best,

Ms. Argow

Joshua you are a strong person. It takes courage to struggle through many things, during school and in personal life. Hang in there. By finishing school it seems like this is the end, and all time of confusion. But it is just the end of a struggle that we all go through, but it is just the first stepping stone in the future of your life and the decisions you will make. There's nol limit to greatness, just believe in your self and nothing will be impossible for you to achieve.

-From your Mother who loves you,

The door to childhood; my love bigger than the universe as my arms guided you through it.. now the big day opening the road to manhood, now by your own...

From the day you were born we knew you would do great things, we're so proud of you! - Love Mom & Dad

Keep your eyes on the stars and your feet on the ground

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines, sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.
~Mark Twain

When you leave here, don't forget why you came.
~Adlai Stevenson

Graduation is only a concept. In real life every day you graduate. Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life. If you can grasp that, you'll make a difference.
~Arie Pencovici

Endings/Goodbye

A few tears some false smiles and a glance at the clock because it's time to go but you know it's gonna hurt when you say it. You're even hesitant to write it.
So what does it really mean anyway?
Good Bye
When there are always new hellos and
Clean pages to begin all over again
And then there are memories and illegible words that you try to Figure out

Faded Photographs that make you ask
Who? What? Where? Why? When?
But you'll always remember
The beginnings and
Just watch
One day you'll smile when you
Collect all of your Beautiful endings

"Set out each day believing in your dreams. Know without a doubt that you were made for great things." ~ Josh Hinds

"Each of us has a fire in our hearts for something. It's our goal in life to find it and keep it." ~ Mary Lou Retton

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.
~Ralph Waldo Emerson

You can shed tears that he has gone,

You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all he's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember him and only that he has gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what he'd want, smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Or you can smile because he has lived.

They say memories are golden
well maybe that is true.
We never wanted memories,
We only wanted you.
A million times we needed you,
a million times we've cried.
If love alone could have saved you
you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place
no one can ever fill.
If tears could build a stairway
and heartache make a lane,
We'd walk the path to heaven
to bring you back again.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.
